◀ X marks the soft spot

X-Stack chairs must be having an identity crisis. The latest offering from Vecta aspires to be a mini-stacking desk with a non-upholstered chair that is as comfortable as an upholstered one. Its monopod functions as a table and cup holder. www.vecta.com

▶ Nesting instinct

Clerk is a mobile space-saving storage solution. These super-shelves are designed to hold multiple accordion files or banker shelves. When not in use they can be nested to allow them to be stored out of the way. www.allsteeloffice.com

A touch of glass

Joel Berman Glass Studios has introduced three textures for use as partitions and panels. Plovera imitates the appearance of rain on glass, Stones is hand-crafted and kiln-cast textured, and the Imprint collection has a design that can be scaled up and identified from afar. www.jbermanglass.com

◀ Urbane Urban

Modular broadloom is commercial carpet for large spaces. The Urban Optimist collection comprises randomly patterned products that can be combined to form complementary patterns. The range is adaptable and exclusive, making it ideal for office and public areas. www.noodfashion.com

▶ Turning the tables

The chameleon-like tables of the Collective Conference range use modular functional options to provide connectivity, notepads or pens, and a multi-use shelf, all on Cubist-inspired bases. www.jofco.com
